

Jolie Weights haven't been sold or advertised in six years,
yet the order requests have continued to this day.

Hi Jodie,

My name is Joyce. I got some your weights about 6 or 7 years ago. Loved them! I went to use them just recently and found one was missing. Do you still sell the weights? The pair I owe say patent pending. I would love to be put on a wait list for the weights, if there is one. Or is there somewhere they are being sold. Can't find any online.

Thanking You In Advance,
Joyce Brown

Good afternoon,

I would like to get a price list. I would like to order a pair. What weight sizes and color do they come in? I do personal training and I tell ALL my clients to get a pair. I have several clients that have a pair from years ago when I bought mine so we would all like to get a new pair. So please let me know!!

Thank you,

Jodie,

I was so excited to find your email address! I own a fitness store in FL and would love to sell your walking weights. I learned about them from one of my customers who bought a pair a long time ago. She loves them and said I should sell them in my store. I started asking customers if they'd buy them and now I have a waiting list for people who want the first shipment! Please get back to me with the details.

Thank you,
Kristine Schmidtke

Jodie,

My name is Susanne Grecian and I have included a friend of mine in this email who already has the Jolie Weights but is interested in getting another pair. I was curious as to how much they are as I personally would like to purchase a pair of the black ones and navy blue ones in both the 1 and 2 lb sizes.

Sincerely,
Susanne Grecian

I have had a pair of the 2 lb shoe weights for 5+ years and they just now (as in TODAY) developed a hole in the outer covering. It saddened to me to see they are no longer for sale because they are a big part of my fitness regimen. Please let me know when I will be able purchase a new pair.

Hello,

My friend got her walking weights on this web site a long time ago and I would like to order 2 pairs of the weights you have in both 1 pounds and 2 pounds. Is it possible for me to order those?

Thank you,

Francine

Dear Jodie:

I don't know if you are the right person to contact. I met a woman recently who had the weights that you attach to your shoes for walking. I was so excited because I've been looking for something exactly like the ones she had called jolie weights. Is this the right way to place an order? I also have 2 friends who would like a pair. I'd also like to know how heavy they are and what colors they come in. Please let me know if you are the right person to talk to.

Hello,

I saw your jolie walking weights in an old issue of Womans Day magazine and would like to order a pair.

Can you tell me how much they are and what is the website that I place my order on?

Hi Jodie,

I am interested in finding out how much these are. I have an almost 4 yr old that I would like to have wear these. What weight do you suggest? He is unusually strong for his age and has sensory processing disorder/PDD-NOS (Autism Spectrum), and seeks physical input and this was suggested by his physical therapist to keep him calm throughout the day so he can learn.

To Whom It May Concern,

I would like to order your walking weights for my 2 daughters and my mother. Can you let me know where I can order them and how long will it take for them to arrive? I live in Michigan.

Thank,

Joie Elliot

Hi Jodie!!
I don't expect you to remember me. Back in May of 2008 I ordered 2 pair of your shoe weights. I even referred a friend of mine to you back then that loved my weights. I still use mine every day!!! At the time I actually ordered 2 pair so I would have them in case I wore them out. Believe this...I have yet to need the new one's. My original pair is still hanging in there!! They are the best!! Do you still offer them? Have you expanded your line of weights?

Hope to hear back from you!
